4. NATIONAL POLICE MISSION

a) Mandate

The National Police Mission was announced by the Honorable Prime Minister in October 2019, in DSLSA/DSAD Conferences to transform the police force of the country into an effective instrument for maintenance of internal security by taking on myriad challenges coming up in the new century by equipping them with the necessary material, intellectual and organizational resources enabling them to create "New World" for the police.

b) Objectives

i. To prepare the police force for emerging challenges.
ii. To equip police personnel of all ranks better equipped to face the new challenges.
iii. To ensure strengthening of the metropolitan and rural policing.
iv. To trigger attitudinal change in police by transforming the "face-to-face" into "service-oriented" policing.

v. To harness technology to the aid of police
vi. To adopt community policing and ensure effective delivery of police services to the citizens.

c) Structure of NPM

To achieve these objectives, a four-tier system has been established:
1. Empowered Steering Group (ESG)
2. Executive Committee (EC)
3. Mission Directorate (MD)
4. Micro Mission (MM)

To complete the task, different working groups of experienced police officers and experts are formed. The output of working groups is shared with the government and police organizations in the form of a Concept Note Report. These reports are also published in the form of a compendium.

11. Organized All India Police Housing Conference once every two years and national level competition for Architecture Design of Jails
