MAINTENANCE
OF
POLICE STATION RECORDS

DELHI POLICE
POLICE STATION RECORDS

Proper maintenance of Police Station records is a pre-requisite for the smooth functioning of a Police Station. These records are of immense help in the prevention and detection of crime and in keeping track of the movements of criminals. Since these records are of paramount importance, it is the duty of an Officer Incharge of a Police Station to ensure that these records are safely kept and do not deteriorate from damp, vermin or other causes.

Every Police Station register is required to be pagéd in English. No page should be torn out of a register. Any correction required to be made should be made by drawing a line through the mistake so as to leave the words erased and by writing the corrected words afterwards or in the margin. A piece of paper should not be pasted over a mistake. All entries should be neatly and clearly written and all the corrections should be attested by the signature of the officer making them.

The following registers are required to be maintained in each Police Station :-

REGISTER NO. 1 FIRST INFORMATION REPORT REGISTER

The First Information Report register shall be maintained on a printed book in form 24.5(1) as given in Annexure-1 consisting of 200 pages. It shall be completely filled before a new register is commenced. Cases shall bear an annual serial number in each Police Station for each calendar Year. Every four pages of the register shall be numbered with the same number and shall be written at the same time by means of carbon copying process. The original copy shall be a permanent record in the Police Station. One copy shall be sent to the DCP, one to the magistrate empowered to take cognizance of the offence and the third to the complainant.

A warning stating therein that ‘Burking or writing incorrect report is an offence punishable under section 218 IPC’ shall be affixed to the cover of every FIR book before bringing it to use.

Note :- Additional copies of FIR may be prepared for CRO & sent to I/C CRO). This register is a permanent record.

REGISTER NO. 2 DAILY DIARY REGISTER
